The file `~/scripts/plotEntry.R` can be used to plot individual entries from the database. For example

source("~/sidb/scripts/plotEntry.R")
plotEntry(entry=Andrews2000SBB)

Andrews2000SBB

The plots produced by this function are at the moment not of high quality, so use the function only to visually assess the data. For exmaple,

plotEntry(entry=Arevalo2012)

Arevalo2012

produces output that is not ideal for publication. You're welcome to modify the function `plotEntry` for output of better quality.
